ANNEX II: Summary of survey on content development

SI. #	Questions
1	Are you developing ICT-based content ?
2	For whom you develop content
3	What kind of content you developed already?
4	What language you are using for developing your content?
5	Please specify what sources you are using for your content?
6	What license do you release the content under?
7	How do you honour IPR obligation for the source materials?
8	What do you use for developing content?
9	Do you use any content management system (CMS)?
10	How do you identify what content to be developed?
11	How do you select the target group of your content?

ANNEX II: Summary of survey on content development

Sl. #	Questions	Afganistan
1	Are you developing ICT-based content ?	Yes
2	For whom you develop content	For PAN web master, For the Project Research reports, LIP, ICT Magazine
3	What kind of content you developed already?	PC, Text and Text & picture
4	What language you are using for developing your content?	Pashto, English
5	Please specify what sources you are using for your content?	Organization Documents
6	What license do you release the content under?	Not protected
7	How do you honour IPR obligation for the source materials?	Written for non-commercial use permission - Afghanistan Academy of Sciences Take no permission as the source is copy left
8	What do you use for developing content?	Word processor, HTML, CSS
9	Do you use any content management system (CMS)?	No reply
10	How do you identify what content to be developed?	Organization decision
11	How do you select the target group of your content?	There are no specified boundaries, but most of content is developed ICT related. Includes but not limited to beginners and professionals

ANNEX II: Summary of survey on content development

SI. #	Questions	Bangladesh
1	Are you developing ICT-based content ?	Yes
2	For whom you develop content	For telecentre operators, Informediary and community people
3	What kind of content you developed already?	PC - Text, Text & picture, Multi-media (Video & animation) Internet - E-book (Text, image, Text & image); E-learning (Text & image, Audio, Video conference)
4	What language you are using for developing your content?	Bangla
5	Please specify what sources you are using for your content?	Printed materials, Web content, Developed inhouse by experts
6	What license do you release the content under?	Partially protected
7	How do you honour IPR obligation for the source materials?	Purchse license
8	What do you use for developing content?	HTML
9	Do you use any content management system (CMS)?	Joomla
10	How do you identify what content to be developed?	Need assessment, Expert opinion, Secondary assessment
11	How do you select the target group of your content?	Developing livlihood content for community people which can be delivered from telecenters

ANNEX II: Summary of survey on content development

Sl. #	Questions	Bhutan	Cambodia	Laos	Mongolia
1	Are you developing ICT-based content ?		Yes		No
2	For whom you develop content		PAN web master
3	What kind of content you developed already?		PC - Text, Text & picture
4	What language you are using for developing your content?		Khmer, English
5	Please specify what sources you are using for your content?		Organization documents
6	What license do you release the content under?		Not protected
7	How do you honour IPR obligation for the source materials?		Take no permission as the source is copy left
8	What do you use for developing content?		HTML, CSS
9	Do you use any content management system (CMS)?		Dragonfly
10	How do you identify what content to be developed?		Organization Decision
11	How do you select the target group of your content?

ANNEX II: Summary of survey on content development

Sl. #	Questions	Nepal
1	Are you developing ICT-based content ?	Yes
2	For whom you develop content	They are developing generic content applicable for a wide range of people. Basically, these are training manuals on NepaLinux, a localized Linux Distribution in Nepali as well as other localized Free and Open Source Software. Besides, they have also developed the localization guide to Open Source Software Localization in the Linux Platform.
3	What kind of content you developed already?	No reply
4	What language you are using for developing your content?	Nepali, English
5	Please specify what sources you are using for your content?	Printed materials, web content
6	What license do you release the content under?	Partially protected - GNU Free documentation license & Creative Commons license
7	How do you honour IPR obligation for the source materials?	Release content materials observing the release licenses mentioned above
8	What do you use for developing content?	Word processor, OpenOffice.org suite
9	Do you use any content management system (CMS)?	No
10	How do you identify what content to be developed?	Need assessment, Expert opinion, Secondary assessment
11	How do you select the target group of your content?	Target users of NepalLinux are people from rural & remote areas of Nepal, where the English-proficient masses is very low or absent. Hence, the target groups also are general Desktop users, who may be students, teachers, farmers, youths etc. Target group of the localizaion guide is all free and open source researchers, developers and enthusiasts.

ANNEX II: Summary of survey on content development

Sl. #	Questions	Pakistan	Vietnam
1	Are you developing ICT-based content ?	Yes
2	For whom you develop content	Yourself, students
3	What kind of content you developed already?	PC - Text & picture, Internet - Text & picture
4	What language you are using for developing your content?	Urdu, English
5	Please specify what sources you are using for your content?	Printed materials, web content
6	What license do you release the content under?	Partially protected - Open Content license
7	How do you honour IPR obligation for the source materials?	Take no permission as the source is copy left
8	What do you use for developing content?	Word processor
9	Do you use any content management system (CMS)?	PAN wiki
10	How do you identify what content to be developed?	Content development is based on assumption that the targer group has minimal exposure to ICTs
11	How do you select the target group of your content?	Based on exposure & access to ICTs, i.e. those groups with the least exposure and access are selected

ANNEX II: Summary of survey on content development

SI. #	Questions	Sri Lanka
1	Are you developing ICT-based content ?	Yes
2	For whom you develop content	Students, teachers, community, government
3	What kind of content you developed already?	E-book (Text, image, text & image; E-learning (Text & image, Audio, audio-visual (video, animation), Video comferencing, on-line interactive tools
		TV (recorded), Projection equipment (Text and/or picture through Slide projector
		Radio (weekly radio prgram on ICT)
4	What language you are using for developing your content?	Sinhala, Tamil, English
5	Please specify what sources you are using for your content?	Government news, information and printed materials
6	What license do you release the content under?	Not protected
7	How do you honour IPR obligation for the source materials?	Take verbal permission
8	What do you use for developing content?	HTML and proprietary tools (e.g. dreamviewer)
9	Do you use any content management system (CMS)?	Mambo, Drupal, Joomla, LCMS (scorm compatible)
10	How do you identify what content to be developed?	Need assessment, expert opinion
11	How do you select the target group of your content?	Registered students and general public